

AMERICAN STUDIES GUIDEBOOK

A COLLECTION OF SELECTED
AMERICAN STUDIES
MATERIALS

IN FOUR VOLUMES:

VOLUME I

American Studies: The Discipline Defined and Examined

Volume II

The Practice of American Studies
Abroad and in the United States

Volume III

Selected American Studies Courses

Volume IV

Bibliographic Essays

AMERICAN STUDIES GUIDEBOOK: A COLLECTION OF SELECTED AMERICAN STUDIES MATERIALS.

SEPARATE TABLE OF CONTENTS FOR PART II

Part II: The Practice of American Studies: The Background and Design of American Studies Programs in Universities in the United States and the Development and Variety of American Studies Abroad.

American Studies in Universities in the United States.

- A. "American Studies at Douglass College; One Vision of Interdisciplinarity."

By Linda Keller Brown, Douglass College, Rutgers University.

- B. "American Studies at Pennsylvania."

By Murray G. Murphey, University of Pennsylvania.

- C. "Studying America and American Studies at Yale."

By Sydney E. Ahlstrom, Yale University.

- D. "American Studies at the George Washington University."

By Robert H. Walker, George Washington University.

- E. "American Studies at the University of Minnesota."

By Mary C. Turpie, University of Minnesota.

- F. "American Studies at Bowling Green State University."

By Alma J. Payne, Bowling Green State University.

- G. "American Studies at Michigan State University."

By Don Hausdorff, Michigan State University.

- H. "American Studies at Amherst."

By Allen Guttmann, Amherst College.

- I. "Accent on Artist and Artisan: The Winterthur Program in Early American Culture."

By E. McClung Fleming, Winterthur Museum.

Describes the structure and relationship between American

Studies at the University of Delaware and the Winterthur Museum, a program which calls attention to "the role of the artifact as a cultural document."

[Articles B. through I. are copyright 1970, Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania. These essays appeared in the American Quarterly. Although individual faculty members may have changed, the style and direction of these programs remain essentially the same as described here.]

J. "American Studies Description: University of Maryland."

By Myron Lounsbury, Program Director, and Robert Corrigan, Provost of Arts and Humanities, University of Maryland.

This is an internal university description of the rationale, courses and requirements for the undergraduate, M. A. and Ph.D. degrees.

K. "American Studies Program: Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, New York."

By David Marcell, Skidmore College.

L. "American Studies Programs in the United States: A Quantitative Survey."

Prepared by John A. Hague, National American Studies Faculty.

From American Quarterly, Bibliography Issue, 1976. This listing presents the three hundred colleges and universities which offer undergraduate and graduate (M. A. and Ph.D. ) degrees in American Studies. Also listed are those colleges which offer American Studies work in the summer sessions.

American Studies in Universities Abroad.

A. "American Studies in Argentina."

By Rolando Costa Picazo, Executive Director of the Fulbright Commission in Argentina and faculty member at the National Higher Teacher Training Institute of Buenos Aires.

B. "American Studies in Belgium."

By Pierre Michel, Director, Center for American Studies, Liege University.

C. "American Studies in Australia and New Zealand."

By Neville K. Meaney, Senior Lecturer, Department of History,
University of Sydney, New South Wales.

D. "American Studies in Britain."

By J. E. Morpurgo, Professor of American Literature, The University of Leeds.

E. "American Studies in Canada."

By Peter Buitenhuis, Professor of English and Director of the North American Studies Program at McGill University, Montreal, Canada.

F. "American Studies in France."

By Roger Asselineau, Professor of American Literature, the Sorbonne, and Simon Copans, Lecturer and former Director,
State University of New York's Institute of American Studies, Paris.

G. "American Studies in Germany: Their Growth, Variety and Prospects."

By Hans Galinsky, Professor of Anglistics and Americanistics,
Johannes Gutenberg University, Mainz.

H. "American Studies in Hong Kong."

By Gordon G. Lawrie, Senior Lecturer in Political Science,
University of Hong Kong.

I. "American Studies in India."

By Dwijendra Tripathi, Professor of Business and Economic History and Dean, Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, Gujurat.

J. "American Studies in Italy."

By Tiziano Bonazzi, Associate Professor of American History,
Department of Political Science, University of Bologna.

K. "American Studies in Pre-War Japan."

By Makoto Saito, Hepburn Professor of American History and Government, Faculty of Law, University of Tokyo.

L. "American Studies in Japan Since 1945."

By Merrill Jensen, Vilas Research Professor of History, University of Wisconsin.

M. "On the Present State of American Studies in the Soviet Union."

By N. N. Bolkhovitinov, Senior Scientific Staff Member, USSR Academy of Sciences.

N. "American Studies in Spain."

By Javier Coy, Professor of English Language and Literature, University of Salamanca.

O. "American Studies in Yugoslavia."

By Janez Stanonik, Professor of English and American Literature, Chairman, Department of Germanic Languages and Literature, Ljubljana University.