Desiderata: Croatian SISMEL

- Modern editions of interesting texts
- A dictionary ~~of Croatian humanist Latin~~
- A secondary bibliography
- A national manuscript catalogue
- Synthetic studies (genres, periods, style)

You gotta ask yourself two questions:

No. 1:
What is on my desk?

No. 2:
What questions do I ask?

John Bradley
(author of Pliny software):

"model some aspects of established scholarly practice"

An itch to be scratched

- A resource I need
- A resource my colleagues need
- Needed for research
- Needed for teaching

- ”[support by the computer] the act of developing an interpretation” (Neel's graph of scholarly arguments?);
- ”[build a tool for] scholarship [that] draws on many different resources”

Desiderata: a digital library?

- Easy access to:
  - MSS
  - old printed books
  - older secondary literature
  - regional and local publications
- Membra disiecta: contributions are dispersed, easy to miss, hard to obtain

An heterogeneous community

- Different disciplines are interested in Croatian Latin literature:
  - (Classical / neo-Latin) philology
  - Linguistics
  - History
  - History of literature
  - Art history
  - Theology and church history

A heterogeneous community

- Includes both scholars and learners
- People with different language skills (Latin?)
- People from different institutions, in different places
- People have basic computing skills, but not much more (what are regular expressions? Do they ~~use social software~~ write for Wikipedia?)

A general and open collection

- Design a collection that will be general enough and open enough to fit everybody involved
- Design a collection stronger in infrastructure (tools, standards, methods, interfaces, documentation) than in texts themselves – at least in the beginning!
- Design a collection able to receive content and metadata from its users

A general and open collection

- Design a collection able to receive content and metadata from its users
- Stimulate collaboration
- Become a channel for (alternative) publication: both for what is already published (but better), and for what cannot be done in print (Aeschylus!)

The road to imperfection

- Release early, release often
  (E. S. Raymond on open source software)
- Bolje išta nego ništa
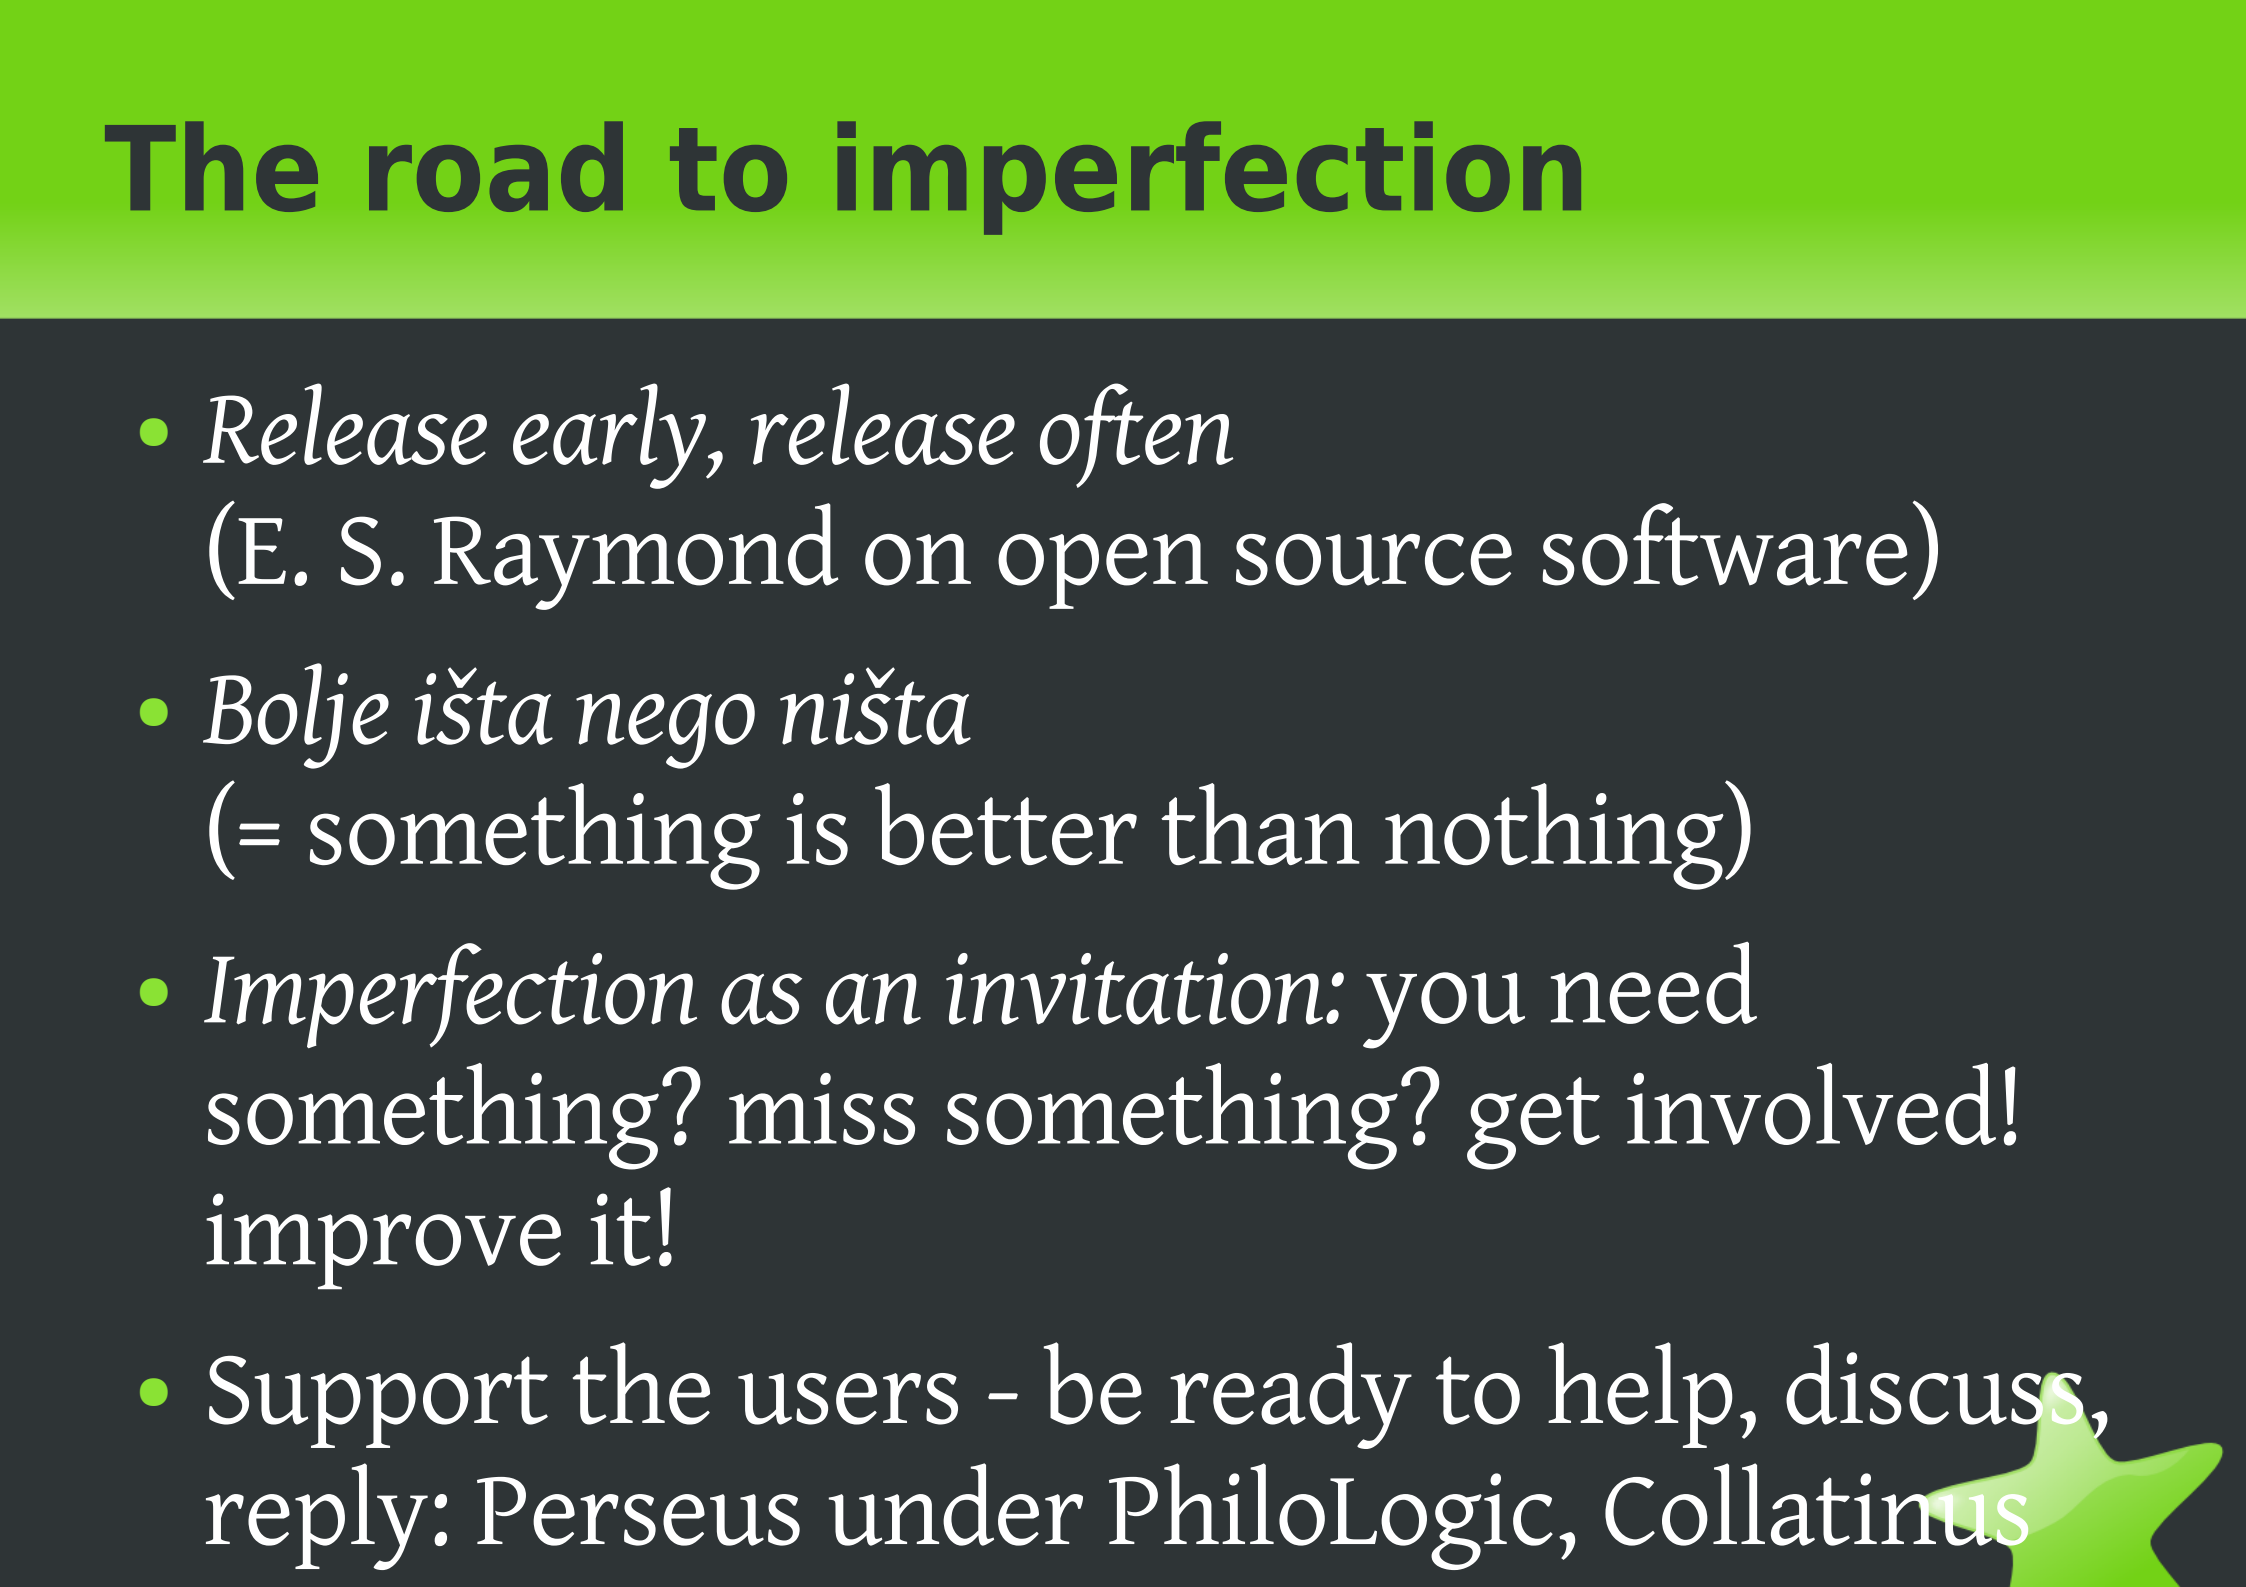
  (= something is better than nothing)
- Imperfection as an invitation: you need something? miss something? get involved! improve it!
- Support the users - be ready to help, discuss, reply: Perseus under PhiloLogic, Collatinus



Why interfaces matter?

To find information about individual people of the early modern era (or even about places), we recommend the use of Zedler's Universal-Lexicon, a most important "Who is who" of the early modern period.

Latin place names can be identified with Graesse's Orbis Latinus Online.
The Latin place names found in imprints are listed and identified at this site.

Uvodni podaci

Rad u okviru projekta Digitalizacija hrvatskih latinista. Molim da primjedbe, dopune i doprinose javite na adresu Nevena Jovanovića.

Stanje 13. svibnja 2008: 36 autora, 66 naslova (usporedbe radi, bibliografija Dane F. Suttona trenutačno ima 25.443 jedinice).

Usp. važan izvor Analitička bibliografija novolatinskih tekstova na internetu, Dana F. Sutton, The University of California, Irvine.

Za tiskane publikacije v. Prinose za bibliografiju hrvatskog latinizma.

Caveat: poveznice na bazu podataka Poeti d'Italia in lingua Latina, iz softverskih razloga, ne vode do konkretnog teksta. Potrebno je ručno odabrati pojedinog autora (najjednostavnije je to učiniti s popisa "Autori ed opere").

Kratak biografski pregled (na engleskom): Darko Zubrinic, Croatian Humanists, Ecumenists, Latinists, and Encyclopaedists (Zagreb, 1995 i d.).

Članci na hrvatskoj Wikipediji: http://hr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hrvatski_latinisti i http://hr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hrvatski_latinizam.
